

Annual Fall Piscataquog Dam Drawdown and Paddlers' Party.

Last Updated Wednesday, 25 October 2017

You're invited to the Annual Piscataquog Fall Drawdown Release (Class II Section). All Paddlers are invited. (Not just folks we know.) So don't be shy! It's the last release of the year after all. Halloween Day—Paddle and BBQ. Saturday October 28th. Release starts at 10am. Party after paddling. Start on that winter fat...

Sponsored by the MVP and NH AMC Paddlers. What to Do!

- Show up at the dam.
- Put on.
- Boat (or just Park-n-Play).
- Shuttle back to the put in.
- Eat til you explode.
- Drive home safely. What to Bring:
- Lawn chair to sit on
- BYOB (for various values of 'B').
- Desserts pot-luck since we're supplying main meal only.
- Bring an appetite! Le Menu:
- Marinated steak tips hot off the grill
- Hot baked potatoes with butter and sour cream
- Baked beans with keilbasa and bacon, onions and green peppers.
- Two kinds of homemade chicken soup
- Homemade tomato bisque (No clams, Nancy is trying something different)
- Salad
- Homemade bread (made by Nancy herself) for dunkin.

Directions can be found at this American Whitewater Web Site Page. Thanks to Bruce Taylor for supplying photos of prior years' event, with over 100 paddlers (from all over New England) participating.
